Q.4 Pick out the inter and intra-sentence connectors from the following passage. (08)

Chika climbs in through the store window first and then holds the shutter as the woman climbs in after her. The store looks as if it was deserted long before the riots started; the empty rows of wooden shelves are covered in yellow dust, as are the metal containers stacked in a corner. The store is small, smaller than Chika's walk-in closet back home. The woman climbs in the window shutters squeak as Chika lets to of them. Chika's hands are trembling, her calves burning after the unsteady run from the market in her high-heeled sandals. (From 'a Private Experience' by C.N. Adichi).

Q.5 Identify tenor, mode and domain of the following discourse and state at least four register features of it. (08)

Father eternal, giver of light and grace.
We have sinned against you and against our neighbor,
In what we have thought,
in what we have said and done,
through ignorance, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We have wounded your love
And marred your image in us
We are sorry and ashamed
And repent of all our sins
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
Who died for us,
Forgive us all that is past,
And lead us out from darkness
To walk as children of light
Amen
